

NO BOND WAS ASKED

The Collector's Attitude Towards the Saloon of Eugene Harrington.

A DIRECT VIOLATION OF THE LAW HINDERING THE POLICE.

The Proprietor of a Fine Street Resort Which the Police Consider Dangerous Declares That He Got His License Without Bond—Police Captain Young's Statement—A Remarkable Case.

The police have a rather peculiar light on their hands in undertaking to close the saloon on the southwest corner of Seventh and Pine streets, owned by Thomas O'Brien and Eugene Harrington. It is a saloon backed by a brewery, to begin with, its receipts are about $50 a day, and it is licensed by Collector Ziegenfuss. The owners are well known among the sporting men of the city, and the people who stay up all night about the streets. For some time past the police have kept a sharp eye on the place, as complaints came to headquarters from men and women who said they had been robbed in there. About the middle of this month, Police Captain William Young asked Sergeant McNamara and Gillespie, who have charge of the beat, to make a formal report on the character of the saloon. The report was made promptly. It was full of dates, robberies and fights, a presentation that surprised even the captain. Some of the statements were:

A VERY BAD RECORD.

Hugh Gorham had $1,000 stolen from him in the saloon Jan. 21, 1931. Jack Krieger, a stranger from Mt. Vernon, Ill., was robbed of $40 in Oct. 17, 1931. John Tierman went in there on the night of Oct. 2, 1931, and came out without a gold watch, which somebody had stolen from him. Harry Dillard had $15 stolen from him Nov. 1, 1931.

Maurice Cathcart had two gold medals stolen from him Nov. 6, 1931. The barkeeper, William J. Hilton, was arrested for the theft and the medals were returned by Proprietor Harrington.

James Palmer went into the saloon Jan. 23, 1932, and $50 was stolen from him. Aug. 10 Proprietor Harrington was arrested for fighting over dice with William Wells and Capt. Ziegenfuss. The collector was arrested for fighting over dice with John Wilson.

BOTH PROPRIETORS ARRESTED.

Capt. Young thought that this report would be sufficient to prevent the saloon from getting a license from the collector, and enough, even, to induce the collector to withdraw the license if one had been issued. He was mistaken. The report was sent to the collector on the 10th, and Drumsop Deputy Julius Wurtzberger told the collector that Harrington was too late. The license had been issued. "What?" he was asked. "On the 10th." The license hangs on the wall of the saloon. The date is Feb. 4. There is no way of telling when it was issued.

Police Captain Young gave orders to his men to watch the saloon and arrest the owners whenever disturbance occurred there. Friday night Proprietor Harrington was arrested. He was charged with theft by receiving. The collector said that he got Harrington to change a $20 bill and Harrington threw out the correct change. The collector, afterwards slipping a $1 bill in the pocket of the $20 when Harrington was not looking, Harrington is now waiting trial on that charge.

The same day the other proprietor, O'Brien, was arrested charged with assault to kill. Francis Duffy of North seventh street said that O'Brien struck him with a beer glass. Both men gave bond and are at their saloon.

The saloon will stay there till the time for another license, said Capt. Young today. "Our reports show that it is a resort of thieves and low women, and I shall not have such a place in the district. A saloon frequented by such people can't be giving the police work, and on every occasion of disturbance arrests will be made till the place is closed."

Patrolmen keep a vigilant eye on the saloon day and night, and the owners are conscious that they have trouble ahead. Eugene Harrington, who is usually the steward of the two partners, tries to make it appear that the police are persecuting him because he once refused Officer Tobin before the Board for "didn't those robberies the police report occur here?" he was asked.

"Well, that is the way," said Harrington. "I admit that I gamble. I go to the race track and shoot. Then somebody says I've been robbed, and he goes off to the police and tells 'em that I've been robbed. I've good clothes, always had plenty of money and a good home to go to. Do you suppose I'd be a thief and get people down on me? Why, that would be monstrous."

The law is careful to order the collector to make every saloonkeeper applying for a license give a bond for $2,000. Two responsible securities, guaranteeing that the place shall be orderly and that the owner shall pay fees and fines. The collector ignores this part of the law. Proprietor Harrington, in the attempt to prove what a law-abiding citizen he was, showed the reporter his belief in the law.

"Don't you have to have bondmen?" "The saloon-keeper had never had the matter brought to his attention before. That was plain. "I can get all the bondmen I want for anything I'm bringing against me," he said.

"Did you give the collector a bond when you got your license?" "No," he said. "He never asked me for any bond."

"BE PLAIN IN DRESS

and sober in your diet; In short, my dear: kiss me and be quiet."

Seventy-seven Hung in Eight Years.

Capt. W. W. Wheeler, Chief of Police of Ft. Smith, Ark., was a visitor at the Four Courts this morning, and an interested spectator in Judge Morris' court. The chief is visiting his uncle, Mr. John Caldwell, and expects to remain in the city several days. More people are probably hung in Ft. Smith than in any other city in the country. They have had seventy-seven executions there since 1874, said Chief Wheeler, "and there are several in jail now who are waiting their turn at the gallows. The men executed have all been United States prisoners and the crimes for which they were executed were committed in the Indian Territory. The court at Ft. Smith formerly had jurisdiction of the Five Nations, but now have only the Cherokee country and portions of the Choctaw, Creek and Seminole districts, the courts at Paris, Tex., Wichita, Kan., and Guthrie, Okla., having been given jurisdiction of the rest of the Indian Territory, and then a court for the trial of misdemeanors has been established at Muskogee, and that takes considerable of the small criminal court business formerly done by the court at Fort Smith."

The chief says that Fort Smith has nearly 20,000 inhabitants, and is growing rapidly.

Mrs. Barnaby's Diamonds.

DENVER, Colo., March 31.—The reports sent out from the East regarding Mrs. Barnaby's diamonds are denied here. Mr. Barnaby, born an attorney, says he was never in Mrs. Barnaby's house just after Mrs. Barnaby's death, took a list of the jewels, and they were then distributed to members of the family.

REAL ESTATE INTERESTS.

PREPARING TO IMPROVE FANCY NEW WEST END RESIDENCE SUBDIVISIONS.

Gratiot Street Property in Demand for Railway Purposes—Sales in Portland and Forest Park Places, on Washington Avenue, Chamberlain Park, Etc.

"If the weather would continue fine as it is today for a week or two we could then commence to do something in residence properties." That was the sentiment expressed by a majority of the agents, whose business has been very much interrupted by clouds and rain and mud. In improved localities where streets have been made bad weather has not had such a depressing effect upon the demand for property. The market has been unprecedentedly good in downtown business sites and for manufacturing places also. Railroad properties have also commanded a good deal of attention. Special notice is made of the section along the southern border of the Mill Creek Valley, where the Merchants' Bridge terminal Co. and the Frisco people have both been making attempts to increase their holdings. It is well known that the Merchants' Bridge terminal people acquired the Germania Club property on Gratiot street more than a year ago and that the company has also purchased the Knapp and the Whitmore properties in that section. The east of the Germania Club. Lately there has been an unusual demand for property in that quarter, on the south line of Gratiot between eighth and ninth streets, and while it is not positively known in what interest the inquiry is being made the presumption nevertheless is that the property is wanted for railroad purposes. North of Gratiot street the territory is practically all in possession of railroad corporations, and that fact suggests that more scope is wanted by them on the east side of Gratiot street.

shortly there will be some elegant residence subdivisions laid out west of Union avenue in the region north of Forest Park. Nearly all that property contains good ownership about two years ago, and the parties who now hold it have good reason to be encouraged with a view to the future. When they bought Westmoreland place was the only subdivision considered in that quarter, and it was in that tract were then selling at $75 a foot. Now the same ground is marketable at $25 a foot. Portland place, north of it, is selling at $15 to $20 a foot also, and Forest Park place, fronting on King's highway in the same region, has been taken at an average of $75 a foot by a great many buyers within the past three weeks. Probably the next subdivision to be put upon the market in this Forest Park region will be the plot at the southeast corner of Union and Delmar avenues, which recently since last fall, it will not go far towards meeting the demand for fine home sites out that way, and the owners on the west side of Union avenue who are the title coming this way will have to commence making improvements soon or they will be skipped over in the movement westward.

FANCY RESIDENCE LOTS.
A place of ground 100x150 feet situate on the south side of Portland place, between King's highway and Lake avenue, just west of John Davis' lot, was sold today by Charles C. Nichols at $75 a foot to Edward Whittaker, Jr. J. P. Hunkins, as an indication of the speculative tendency of the market in property in that interesting vicinity it may be noted that this lot has only been five days since Mr. Nichols sold to Mr. Dougherty for $100 a foot the tract of 100x150 feet between Union avenue and King's highway, and that within the past five days this same corner has been sold by the same agency for $100 a foot at an advance of $100, to S. H. Burrell.

WASHINGTON AVENUE.
In Forest Park place, a lot of 60x125 feet, located on the north side of Washington avenue, commencing at a point 80 feet west of King's highway, was sold by J. P. Hunkins to Rutledge & Horton to W. H. Vaughn. There is a great deal of activity also in Washington avenue lots west of vanderwater. Fine building improvements on that street maintain its high caste for residence purposes and stimulate higher prices, but occasionally a lot is picked up cheap. A. Park von Wedelstede, who gives this street his special attention, had the luck to buy 40x150 feet on the north line of the avenue, between Barnum and Whittaker, to-day, at $90 a foot. J. P. Hunkins being the grantor.

PARTIAL NORTH.
Over in Forest Park, about a mile north of Forest Park, with the St. Louis & Suburban on the south side of the addition, and the Lindell electric line on the north side of the plot, ground sold to-day at $60 a foot. The purchaser, Alex. C. Sloss, who has the feet on the north side of Barmore avenue, between Florence and Clara, bought from W. S. Fleming through Greenwood & Co.'s agency. This same ground was sold by Greenwood & Co. to Mr. Fleming at $24 a foot two years ago. Since then many handsome houses have been built in Chamberlain Park, and the character of these improvements and the social and business standing of the people who occupy them has nearly doubled the price of the lots that yet remain vacant.

Mr. Kustick, with Geo. D. Barnard & Co., is about to let a contract for a fine stone dwelling in the same block east of where Mr. Sloss has bought. Mr. Kustick's house will probably cost $10,000.

A SIGNIFICANT PURCHASE.
John V. Hogan's $200,000 purchase, reported in last evening's Post-Dispatch, excited good deal of comment in real estate circles, especially as the locality is a somewhat new field of operation for that remarkably successful dealer in realty. His purchase, the 100x150 foot tract, bounded by Chouteau avenue on the north, Taylor, on the west, is almost due east of the Gibson Heights of 18 acres which T. A. Scott purchased in the spring of 1888. The sale to Mr. Hogan was negotiated by L. B. Jones.

OTHER SALES.
J. T. Donovan & Co. report the following sales: The two-story brick house at the northeast corner of Mountain and Auburn avenues, 80x134 feet, for James Flaven to Mrs. Lehigh Dodson, for $4,200; No. 488 Fountain avenue, adjoining on the east, for Mr. Flaven to Lucy J. Spaulden, for $4,000; lot 60x150 feet in Gay place, on the north side of Vernon avenue, 35 feet east of Belt, for $86 a foot, from J. T. Donovan and John Dwyer to P. P. and M. J. Connor, for improvement; lot 60x150 feet, on the north side of Union avenue, 270 feet west of Clara street, for Mr. Flaven to Charles Canfield and G. H. Shelp, for $22.50 a foot; lot 60x150 feet, on the north side of Easton avenue, west of Deer street, for $22.50, from Thomas C. Higgins to George Smith, for improvement.

The Stebbins-Thompson Realty Co. reports the sale of 100 feet of ground fronting on Gray avenue, at Webster Groves, for $500 to Chas. Thomson.

Rutledge and Horton sold 150x150 feet on the east line of Lake avenue, in Haydock's Delmar avenue addition, from Wm. H. Heller to George O. Carpenter, Jr., at $60 a foot.

Gay & McCann disposed of 60x150 feet on the south side of Dodder street, 20 feet east of Jefferson avenue, for Timothy Callahan to John Dodder, for $15 a foot.

John S. King reports the sale of 60x125 feet ground on the east side of the Morgan Ford road between Junata and Connelley at $15 a foot from Dr. E. F. Hauck to Chas. W. Rutledge.

The Ohio Real Estate Co. will move into its new office building, Nos. 208 and 210 North Eleventh street, about May 1.

Boulevard for North St. Louis.
North St. Louis now has a possible chance of getting one of the longest and finest boulevards that adorn any of the greatest cities in America. For several days past Councilman Charles James and some influential people of the North End have been in consultation with Water Commissioner Holman and the street department with a view of constructing a boulevard on the surface of the water works conduit that runs from the old plant at Bissell's point to the Chain Bridge. The distance is about five miles and would make one of the most magnificent, as well as the cleanest, drives in the country. Commissioner Holman is warmly in favor of the project. He and Councilman James will take a trip over the route in a few days.

CITY HALL NEWS.

Department Employees Must Get Down Earlier—Notes.

Commencing to-morrow morning all the employees of the city are expected to report for duty in the morning at 8 o'clock, and work until 6. This is a charter provision and has never been changed, although several attempts have been made. From April to September the office hours are from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and from September to April from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The usual amount of kicking is being done because of the rule, but in a week or two it will be as much of a dead letter as if it did not exist. During the baseball season very few of the clerks are on hand until 6 p. m., and very few can be found at their desks as early as 8.

Street Department Work.

The Street Department is using all its available clerical service in making up the annual report to the Mayor. The report this year will be very complete and comprehensive and will include every detail of the work done in the department during the twelve months ending April 1, 1892. A detailed statement showing the number of miles of every kind of streets, the miles of railroad, etc., will be given along with plans and recommendations for the coming year.

The Fritz Woman Let Out.
Ida Fritz, the woman at whose house of ill-fame a young girl was rescued by the police last week, was to have been tried in the First District Police Court this morning, on a charge of kidnapping. But the case was nolle prosequi by Acting City Attorney Clark. Mr. Clark first recommended that it be dismissed on payment of costs, but Judge Morris said that he would make no such order unless the woman was either guilty or not guilty. If guilty, she should be fined something more than costs, and if innocent she should be discharged. Whereupon Mr. Clark said he would nolle prosequi this case and also that of one of her girls, Mattie Lloyd, who was charged with having been taken from her home. The Fritz woman was to have been prosecuted at first in the Court of Criminal Correction, but Judge Morris refused to issue a warrant against her, there being some doubt as to the age of the girl rescued from her house, and the police then sent the Fritz woman to the Police Court.

A large number of their friends filled the handsomely decorated parlors and halls and were delighted to entertain the talented host. Many pretty presents in crystal were made to the couple. Mr. Kuttner presented him with a set of solid silver spoons which they had been given at their wedding in London, forty years ago. Late in the evening the entire house orchestra serenaded the happy couple and their guests by a serenade. They were ushered into the parlors and untill late in the night the orchestra and soloists entertained the company.

Isaac Rosenbloom, a Russian Jew, was sent from No. 927 North Seventh street to the quarantine, suffering from an attack of typhus fever. Rosenbloom came from Arkansas here with the men who went to quarantine about a month ago, and it is supposed that he contracted the disease from them by having associated with them. His case is not as yet very serious and he stands a good chance of recovery.

Barr's

We are glad to see the sunshine again, but the rainy days gave us an opportunity to open goods and adjust our stocks.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

We shall offer special inducements to buyers in quality and prices.

A NEW CANDIDATE

For favor in the Wash Fabric Department, cannot fail to win. It is as fine and soft as the famous Sea Island cotton, and has a wool finish so perfect that it would be impossible to distinguish it from the finest French Challi. There are thirty different designs on delicately tinted grounds, cool-looking and dainty. We shall make a special price of 16c yard. Ask for the new goods, "Voile Laine."

We still have a few of the prettiest designs in the black ground China Silks. These are especially desirable, and at Barr's price a silk gown will be yours at the cost of a cotton one, 69c yd.

A HOUSEKEEPER'S SPECIAL

Is always of value. 1000 sheets, all hemmed, a consideration for busy women, 10-4 wide, only 67c each. These are regular $1.00 goods.

In the basement we are still selling bargains in Cut Glass, rich, deep, American cut glass, at 50c on the dollar. You will find some genuine bargains. We will continue the sale of the Ammonia at 10c a bottle to-morrow. The Genuine Rogers Triple Plated Dinner Knives and Forks at $1.39 per set will not be likely to last the day out, but you may find a few to-morrow.

Look in the Globe-Democrat to-morrow morning for the bargains we shall offer for
